

Implementation

To ensure that our product met the brief, we were given a set of requirements that must be implemented. We have implemented all of the features that must be included in the final product. The only feature that was left out was 'Music'. This was due to this feature not being mandatory and would make development time longer due to having to find an audio library and find/create music to play in the game.